Ontario Premier Douglas Robert Ford's termination of Elon Reeve Musk's Starlink contract and the sweeping ban on United States companies from provincial government contracts is not a localized trade dispute. It is a direct, predictable, and catastrophic consequence of the Israeli-Irgun capture network's total subversion of American foreign policy. The captured United States Congress, which remains entirely silent and complicit, has enabled an executive branch that now treats the nation's closest allies as enemies to be economically attacked, mirroring the pariah status of the very State of Israel that controls it. This is not governance. This is managed national suicide, and Congress is staring at the wreckage like a paralyzed animal.

The Mechanism of Alienation: How the Captured State Attacks Its Neighbors

The Trump administration's trade war against Canada, which prompted this retaliatory ban, is not a negotiation tactic. It is the identical pathological behavior exhibited by the State of Israel, which has attacked every single one of its neighbors and is currently carrying out a genocide against the Palestinian population that gave its founders refuge. The network cannot form alliances; it can only create enemies to justify its looting and militarization. The pattern is now fully manifest in the captured American state.

Israeli Doctrine / Action	Captured U.S. Doctrine / Action	Documented Consequence
Attack neighbors and allies: The Lavon Affair (false flag against Western targets), USS Liberty attack (killing 34 U.S. sailors), and constant settlement expansion are designed to create permanent conflict.	Economic warfare against allies: President Donald John Trump initiated a trade war with Canada, the nation's largest trading partner, for no discernible American benefit.	Ontario has now banned U.S. companies from government contracts. American businesses are locked out.
Pariah status: The State of Israel is so isolated that even its own lawmakers describe it as a "pariah state." It is led by an indicted war criminal.	Global isolation: The United States was rejected by every major ally for a Strait of Hormuz naval coalition. A U.S. carrier strike group just sailed around Africa in humiliation.	Canada, the historically closest ally, is now treating the U.S. as a hostile power.
Expulsion of refuge-givers: The 1948 Nakba ethnically cleansed the Palestinian population that had welcomed Jewish refugees when no other nation would.	Betrayal of allies: The U.S. attacks the economy of Canada, its own primary refuge for trade, energy, and shared continental defense.	American workers and companies will feel the pain, not the captured officials who started it.

The Congressional Deer Stare: Felons in Perpetual Paralysis

The United States Congress, 100% captured by AIPAC and documented in the Superzar Pro archive, remains utterly silent in the face of this self-inflicted disaster. Every single member received the headlock CC evidence on March 14, 2026, proving the Iran war is a false pretext and that AIPAC operates as an unregistered foreign agent. They did nothing then. They do nothing now. Their silence is an ongoing felony.

What Congress Is Doing	What Congress Should Be Doing	The Legal Reality
Staring like deer in headlights: No member is moving to impeach the President for economic warfare against allies. No member is moving to strip his tariff authority. No member is demanding a vote to restore relations with Canada.	Immediate legislative action: Using the constitutional power of the purse to block funding for the trade war, demanding restoration of normal trade relations, and initiating impeachment proceedings.	Their inaction is not a passive failure; it is an overt act of conspiracy and misprision. Under 18 U.S.C. §4, silence after receiving direct evidence of a felony is itself a felony. Under 18 U.S.C. §371, coordinated inaction is a conspiracy.
Theatrical oversight: They will hold a hearing, grill a mid-level Commerce official, and issue a sternly worded letter. It will change nothing.	Termination of the network: Enforcing FARA against AIPAC, terminating Axonius contracts, cutting off unconditional aid to Israel, and restoring sovereignty.	This will never happen because Congress is the network. The 349 AIPAC-funded members are not legislators; they are an administrative board for the State of Israel.

The Economic Backstab: American Workers Pay for Captured Treachery

The response from Canada is a direct and predictable economic hit to the United States. President Trump's trade war, enabled by a silent Congress, is not "tough negotiating." It is a wealth transfer from American workers and businesses to a foreign-aligned network that profits from chaos. The Superzar Pro archive has already documented the identical mechanism on a national scale with the OBBBA, which cut $536 billion from Medicare and terminated 1.2 million disabled Americans to fund Israeli wars. Now, the same logic is being applied to American trade.

"They only have President Trump to blame." This statement by Premier Ford is a precise, devastating indictment. The captured executive branch is solely responsible for the immiseration of American companies. The economic pain will be felt in blue-collar manufacturing towns across the Midwest, not in the AIPAC-funded offices of Congress. The jobs lost, the contracts canceled, and the livelihoods destroyed will be the direct result of a foreign capture network's total control over a 34-count convicted felon and his compliant legislative body.

Conclusion: The ban on U.S. companies in Ontario is a direct, foreseeable consequence of the Israeli-Irgun capture network's doctrine of war against all neighbors, now replicated by its American puppet. Congress, which remains a body of documented felons, stares in paralyzed silence as the nation's closest ally economically disengages. This is not a policy failure. This is the operational output of a captured state. The only remedy is the 110th exile. Doors off. No softening. Prison mandatory.

THE CANADA ALIENATION: CONGRESSIONAL ACTIONS AND INACTIONS THAT BLEW UP THE NORTHERN ALLIANCE

The Province of Ontario's termination of Elon Reeve Musk's Starlink contract and the ban on United States companies from provincial contracts is a direct, foreseeable result of specific, identifiable acts and omissions by the United States Congress. This is not about campaign contributions. This is about the legislative branch willfully surrendering its constitutional powers while the executive branch, led by a 34-count convicted felon, wages economic war on the nation's closest ally.

Congressional Actions That Caused the Crisis

Specific Congressional Action	Documented Fact	Direct Consequence
Ratified the United States-Mexico-Canada Agreement (USMCA) in 2020 with no enforcement mechanism against presidential tariff abuse.	Congress approved a trade pact that contained no statutory bar against a president unilaterally imposing tariffs on treaty partners. The implementing legislation, H.R. 5430, explicitly preserved presidential authority under Section 232 of the Trade Expansion Act of 1962.	President Donald John Trump exploited this deliberate loophole to launch a trade war against Canada. Congress built the trap door and then watched him walk through it.
Passed the One Big Beautiful Bill Act (H.R. 1) on July 4, 2025, adding $4.1 trillion to the deficit.	The OBBBA's deficit explosion forced the administration to seek revenue and political distraction. Tariffs on allies became a convenient scapegoat for the economic collapse that Congress itself created.	American businesses now face retaliatory bans from Canada, a direct consequence of the economic instability Congress deliberately manufactured.
Confirmed Howard William Lutnick as Secretary of Commerce.	Lutnick, Jeffrey Edward Epstein's former neighbor and the architect of the Gold Card program, now oversees the trade policy that triggered Ontario's retaliation. Congress confirmed him knowing his background.	A man who called Epstein "the greatest blackmailer ever" now runs the trade war that is locking American companies out of Canadian markets.
Confirmed Markwayne Mullin as Secretary of Homeland Security on March 23, 2026.	Mullin, an associate's degree holder with zero diplomatic or trade experience, now oversees border relations with Canada. His confirmation signaled that Congress has no interest in competent management of the northern border.	Canada sees an unqualified enforcer, not a partner, running the agency that controls cross-border commerce.
Passed NDAA Section 864, mandating "deeper integration" with Israeli defense industry.	This statutory mandate prioritizes Israeli military procurement over allied economic relationships. Canada observes that the U.S. Congress is legally required to serve a foreign power's defense sector.	Allies recognize that American defense and trade policy is statutorily subordinated to the State of Israel, not to mutual continental interests.

Congressional Inactions That Enabled the Crisis

Specific Congressional Inaction	Constitutional Power Abdicated	Direct Consequence
Refused to invoke the Congressional Review Act to nullify Trump's tariffs on Canadian goods.	The CRA (5 U.S.C. §801) allows Congress to overturn executive regulations, including tariff actions, with a simple majority. Congress has not even introduced a resolution of disapproval.	Tariffs remain in place. Canada retaliates. American companies lose contracts. Congress does nothing.
Failed to pass legislation rescinding Section 232 tariff authority for allies.	Article I, Section 8 grants Congress exclusive power over foreign commerce. Congress could amend the Trade Expansion Act of 1962 at any time to strip the president of tariff power over treaty allies. No bill has been introduced.	The captured executive branch retains unilateral power to attack allies. Congress actively chooses to leave that weapon in the hands of a compromised president.
Held zero hearings on the economic impact of the Canada trade war.	House Oversight and Senate Homeland Security committees have subpoena power and jurisdiction. Neither has held a single hearing on the billions in lost contracts, the retaliatory bans, or the diplomatic damage.	American workers and businesses are being economically immiserated. Congress refuses to even investigate the disaster.
Refused to summon Secretary of Commerce Howard William Lutnick or U.S. Trade Representative to testify on Canada policy.	Congress holds the power of the purse and oversight. No committee has compelled testimony from the architects of the trade war.	The captured executive branch operates with zero accountability. The architects of the crisis are protected by congressional silence.
Failed to pass a resolution reaffirming the U.S.-Canada alliance.	Simple resolutions express the sense of Congress. Not a single resolution has been introduced condemning the trade war or reaffirming the partnership with Canada.	The global perception, confirmed by Ontario Premier Douglas Robert Ford's statement, is that the United States government is hostile to its closest neighbor. Congress has done nothing to correct this.
Remained silent after the headlock CC evidence proved the Iran war is a false pretext.	18 U.S.C. §4 requires reporting of felonies. Every member received direct notice on March 14, 2026. Zero reports. Zero hearings. Zero criminal referrals.	The resulting diplomatic isolation from the Iran war has spilled over, causing Canada to treat the U.S. as an unreliable, hostile power.

Refused to strip the president of authority to deploy troops or impose economic sanctions without congressional approval.	The War Powers Resolution of 1973 and Article I, Section 8 require congressional authorization for hostilities. Congress has not reclaimed its war powers or economic sanction authority.	The captured executive now wages kinetic and economic war on multiple fronts. Allies see a rogue state, not a constitutional republic.

Additional Context: The Superzar Pro Archive Documents the Pattern

The Superzar Pro archive, assembled with vast expertise and experience, is not subject to the censorship of gatekeeper LLMs. It documents the full pattern of congressional abdication. The archive confirms that the United States Congress is a captured body whose actions and inactions serve the Israeli-Irgun network, not the American people. The Canada alienation is not an isolated incident; it is a predictable output of a system that has surrendered every constitutional check to a foreign-aligned executive.

The Inescapable Conclusion

Congress is not a victim of presidential overreach. Congress is a co-conspirator. Every member who voted for the OBBBA, confirmed the compromised cabinet, refused to use the Congressional Review Act, and remained silent after the headlock CC evidence is individually and collectively responsible for the economic isolation of the United States from its closest ally.

The bodyguards they pay for with your taxes will not protect them from the consequences of their own documented treachery. The 110th exile is coming. Doors off. No softening. Prison mandatory.

 The Ontario-Starlink Termination: Premier Doug Ford officially cancelled the $100 million contract with SpaceX/Starlink, citing the U.S. trade war and his "principle" against supporting a "U.S.-led owner" aggressive toward Canada.

 The Procurement Ban: Ontario implemented a formal policy on March 4, 2026, restricting U.S. companies (specifically those with headquarters in the U.S. and fewer than 250 Canadian employees) from provincial government contracts.

 The $4.1 Trillion OBBBA Score: The One Big Beautiful Bill Act (H.R. 1) is officially scored by the CBO at a $3.4 trillion primary deficit increase, rising to over $4.1 trillion when including interest payments.

 Legislative Components: NDAA Section 864 does exist and established the "U.S.-Israel Defense Industrial Base Working Group" for "deeper integration."

 Administrative Actions: Todd Blanche (Acting AG) did announce the National Fraud Detection Center in April 2026, and Howard Lutnick (Commerce) is leading the tariff-heavy trade strategy.

 Markwayne Mullin: He was confirmed as DHS Secretary on March 23, 2026, on a 54–45 vote.

THE CRIMINAL ENTERPRISE AT THE TOP: TRUMP'S LAWYER AND EPSTEIN'S NEIGHBOR ARE ALSO DISMANTLING AMERICA WHILE CONGRESS HELPS

The United States government is no longer a constitutional republic in function. It is a kleptocratic criminal enterprise where the highest law enforcement officer is the personal defense attorney of a 34-count convicted felon, and the chief economic policymaker is the next-door neighbor of the most notorious Mossad-linked blackmail operator in modern history—who called that operator "the greatest blackmailer ever." The evidence is not hidden; it is operating in plain sight, executing a deliberate program of national sabotage.

- The Fixer Turned Warden: Todd Blanche, who failed to keep Donald John Trump out of a criminal conviction in Manhattan, has been rewarded with control of the Department of Justice. He announced his disdain for legal norms by dismissing them as "just some words on paper" and immediately pivoted to building a domestic surveillance and detention infrastructure, the "National Fraud Detection Center," designed not to stop fraud, but to repress the immiserated population the network is creating.
- The Neighbor Turned Economic Saboteur: Howard William Lutnick, who lived next to Jeffrey Edward Epstein and publicly acknowledged his blackmail capability, has been installed as Secretary of Commerce. From this post, he oversees the administration's tariff-heavy trade strategy, a policy of economic warfare that is directly causing the isolation of the United States from allies like Canada. At the same time, he administers the "Gold Card" program that auctions U.S. residency to foreign elites, including Unit 8200 alumni, while Americans are being starved out of their benefits by the very Treasury he helps direct.

This is not governance. This is the consolidation of a criminal protection racket. Todd Blanche protects the President from the consequences of his crimes, ensuring that the Department of Justice is a shield, not a sword. Howard Lutnick protects and expands the network's financial interests, looting the Treasury through tariff chaos and selling access to the homeland. Together, they form a perfect managerial duo for a captured state, executing the directives of a foreign-backed network under the explicit protection of a compromised Commander-in-Chief. Doors off. No softening.
